

WIND-UP

It's a busy day in the city - with all its sights and sounds. People are hustling back and forth, cars rush by, bicycles lean against the railings...

Vivid Rainy Day Umbrellas dot the skyline, as raindrops shimmer with reflected light. Slowly the skies clear and the sun peeks out from behind the clouds, and brightly colored Sun Day Parasols shade passers-by from the heat.

Rainy Days and Sun Days, two coordinated quilts, made separately or together. You may have chosen to make only Rainy Day Umbrellas, to cover your bed. Or perhaps you've decided to make the wall-hanging Sun Day Parasols, on it's own or to pair it with the bed quilt.

The blocks are all done now and its time to appliqué the blocks to the background. (The background piecing instructions were posted in January 2018). Arrange the blocks as shown and appliqué in place.

I thread basted all the Distinctive Dresden blocks to the pieced background, and then appliquéd them in place.

Now is the time to add an optional border to bring the quilt up to size, if you'd like a larger quilt.

Layer the quilt with batting and backing, and quilt as desired.

Rainy Day Umbrellas was ruler-quilted in grey, with angled straight lines about 3" apart containing random raindrops to the right and left.

Sun Day Parasols was ruler-quilted in yellow with broken sunrays angled in both directions from a point 2/3 of the way across the top edge.
