

Go/Grow Free-Blocks Project Size: 45" x 46 1/2"

Use the shapes shown on page 2 and low volume fabrics to whip-stitch this fabulous little quilt-top. Each fractured hexagon block and 3" low-volume hexagon is surrounded by a ring of matching low volume hexagon-thirds to create a larger hexagon. Large half-hexagon blocks consisting of a half-hexagon and 3 hexagon thirds fill the top and bottom edges of the quilt. As well, large vertical half-hexagon consisting of an irregular pentagon, 2 hexagon thirds, and 2 hexagon-kites fill the left and right edges of the quilt. I quilted this on my long-arm with random waves and swirls.

During 2016 I hosted my 2nd free online Quilt-Along based on The New Hexagon (Martingale 2014). During the course of that year, I released 12 FREE 3" fractured hexagon blocks; this quilt was designed to use those blocks all together in one place.

Since these blocks were not coordinated to go together at that time, I decided to make the group cohesive by using a selection of low volume fabrics as a way to let each block shine, but make the group of blocks fit together. The blocks are placed within the quilt in the order they were released.

The FREE blocks can still be found at www.KatjasQuiltShoppe.com by choosing 'Blocks on the Go, for Quilts on the Grow' under the 'Quilt-Alongs' tab.

PaperPieces.com makes all my template papers and acrylics! They are great folks and I'd love if you show them your support. There is a paper pack available for all of the 12 free blocks.
