Week 34

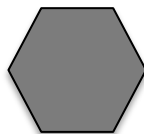

Week 34 means we're now 2/3 of the way through the year.

The heat that Kamloops was missing in the early summer, has recently hit. Although not the extreme record breakers of last year, it's been far too hot for this girl. (Anything over 25C, is too hot for me). I have to say I'm a fair weather person, I love those shoulder seasons, especially Autumn, when a sweatshirt or heavy sweater solves all my problems.
